WEDNESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 11, 1865.

Modern Philanthropy.

Mother England has always been famous for the possession of a bump of benevolence, largely and most singularly predominant. Years ago, before the most of us can well remember, she was hunting up objects, as distant as possible from home, for the purpose of bestowing thereon time and money. Searching over the length and breadth of the seas she found islands, where missions were planted to cultivate a religion that at home was supported by direct taxation. Happy cannibals, that had a salvation coaxingly offered them, that was thrust at the English people in the shape of tithes demanded every quarter. China became a favorite field where the missionary spent many weary years endeavoring to convert the heathen from the error of his ways, by precept and example. The precept may have been sound, but the example was the sound of cannonades, as the British Lion fired his philanthropy at the Celestials in a most explosive way, succeeding at length in forcing opium upon them, but not Christianity.

Singular to say, while with powder, lead, christianity and diplomacy, she was inducing one empire of Asia to cultivate a taste for opium, at the same time and very meanly by the same means, another Asiatic empire was induced to cultivate the opium itself, and the profitable trade in that article no doubt compensated the worthy Lion—if not satisfactory to the world that was all lookers on—for the damnable character of the whole affair.

But having stupefied "John Chinaman" with opium in every form he could enjoy it, and followed up the business persistently for at least a quarter of a century, we have yet to learn that the narcotic has effected the overthrow of the Celestial Josh; added much credit to English benevolence, or many recruits to the English religion.

The subjects of Her Majesty have had, in time past, their opinion of slavery, and a very poor opinion it seems to have been. With holy horror their eyes have been turned to Heaven for a longer time than we can definitely name, all because the horrid system existed in the United States, and their prayers about it have been sent towards Heaven much oftener than they have reached there. Exeter Hall heard "freedom shriekers" long before the Democrats of America were alarmed at their words. "Shackles" were shouted in our ears, and slavery pronounced "abominable" and "barbarous." They said it so often that we concluded it was so, but the missionaries that came over to preach "freedom," even to the New England States, went home with metaphorical fleas in their philanthropic ears, because even ultra "fanatical" Yankee land had sense enough to know that the Constitutional guarantees thrown around slavery placed it independent of their opinion.

As time wore on, Ossawatamie Brown sharpened his pikes and went to work to clean out the institution, and afterwards swung for his pains, justly, as most of the considerate thought, however much he called out sympathy by the boldness of his spirit. We venture to say that John Brown, after his soul went "marching on," swinging clear at last on the "sacred soil," found more friends and admirers among the English than among the American people. Their susceptible hearts were electrified by his brave efforts, and gloried in his course. At last, the time has come, when we, as a nation, strive against the mad effort of the South to destroy the Union; Slavery is the cornerstone of the new foundation of empire that attempts to usurp our State, and at the time when we most naturally would expect that England would sympathize with us, we find her influence favoring slavery; in a great measure lending vitality to the Confederacy, and not able to conceal the regret with which she sees that the Union cause is sure to triumph and succeed.

There was an English prison once named Dartmoor, where in time of war Americans of old learned something of English sympathy. Andersonville is copied after it, but cannot be better remembered by Americans than Dartmoor is. It is well enough for the high-pressure philanthropy of the British Islands to remember and expiate the prisons and prison ships of 1812, and we would willingly efface that memory by remembrance of good deeds; but it simply amounts to insult when these Southern sympathizers come to us on such an errand as Lord Wharncliffe lately came upon. England seems to have heard something of a sarcastic truth from Secretary Seward, on the occasion of his Lordship's application, and much good may it do her. Not all of England is tinctured with this green-eyed, monstrous jealousy; but so much is it so, that there is a taint of it upon the action of the Government. British philanthropy, however, is determined to be in at the death. A live lord comes over to us, his heart dripping with tender drops of charity, and he asks permission that England may visit and supply the wants of Confederate prisoners in our hands. Truly, "the quality of mercy is not strained"; but while this over-officious scion of nobility is aching to relieve the wants of prisoners, has he never heard of Andersonville?—of the thousands dying in Southern "slaughter pens"?—of suffering, death and want induced by Confederate cruelty?—of naked, starved wretches to whom life is a burden?—while the rebel prisoners in our hands are supplied with all that their necessities require, and have English sympathy thrown in to make their happiness complete.

Distance seems to lend a great enchantment to English charities, and they are apt to forget the struggling poor of the foggy isle; to ignore the misery and gaunt famine that stalks abroad at home, and after the fashion of Don Quixote go errand like abroad to search out needless objects of ostentatious charity, forgetting the trite old proverb, which says that charity should commence at home. Kay's work on the Social Condition and Education of the People in England, published last year in England, and reprinted in this country, made some remarkable disclosures, bearing especially upon the moral condition of these people. At the close of his work, Mr. Kay says: "The poor of England are more depressed, more pauperized, more numerous in comparison to the other classes, more irreligious, and very much worse educated than the poor of any other nation, solely excepting Russia, Turkey, South Italy, Portugal and Spain."

The medical officer of the Privy Council of England in his annual report for 1864 shows that in many cases physical deterioration must ensue in England from the fact that a great proportion of the laboring classes do not have sufficient good food to sustain their physical natures even up to the minimum standard that science has demonstrated as necessary, to insure a healthy vitality, and prevent starvation or the diseases connected with it.

If this minimum supply, most of the operatives of England fall short, and yet, it is from a Nation whose peasantry and work people are so abjectly poor that Lord Wharncliffe—the exponent of English sympathy for Dixie—comes to offer aid to the Confederate prisoners who are far better clothed and fed than are the poor of England.

The subject is an ample one, but we merely desire to show the glaring inconsistency of the misplaced sympathy, that too many of the English people bestow upon a wretched cause. Let them clothe, feed, educate and convert the English poor and then turn their eyes abroad.

ROBBERY AT BUTTEVILLE.—We learn of Samuel Brown, Esq., of Belpassi, that on last Monday night the stores of F. W. Geer & Co. and Mr. G. A. Cone, Sr., at Butteville, were broken into and robbed. Some $100 worth of heavy clothing was taken out of the store of Geer & Co. and articles of smaller value were taken from Mr. Cone. The perpetrator of the crime had not been discovered when our informant left, though ten or twelve men were out after them, and had found on the bank of the river, on the opposite side below town, where old clothes were left and new ones were probably put on by a man and a boy.

We learn from the Idaho Statesman that Alex. Richie killed Charles Chrisman, about thirty miles below the city, on the east side of Boise river, on the 22d of December, by giving him a mortal wound in the left side with a large bowie knife, penetrating the heart. Chrisman lived about fifteen minutes. He was about twenty-eight years of age, and leaves a wife and two children. The parties got into an altercation which originated in a settlement of their accounts. Chrisman was unarmed.

The name of the man killed in a tunnel recently at South Boise was Thiell—not Pitcher, as before stated. He lived about twelve hours after he was hurt. He leaves a family at Rocky Bar.

The Democratic papers say that all the soldiers in California that had the "manliness to vote for McClellan," are to be "sent to the frontiers" to be scalped by the savages, of course. The Democracy of California have not placed many men in the army; not enough to do any good on the frontiers if they were sent there. This is only a miserable lie, and one of the nice ways they have of helping enlistments and showing their patriotism.

FIRE AT VANCOUVER.—The quarters of Capt. Hopkins, Quartermaster at Fort Vancouver, caught fire on Monday evening, Jan. 9th, from cause unknown, unless from a defective flue. When discovered, the upper rooms were found to be in a blaze. The building was of hewn logs, weather-boarded, story and a half high, and was totally destroyed. The furniture and contents generally of the house were saved, though of course considerably damaged.

A friend informs us that the Odd Fellows at the Dalles had a public installation on Friday evening, Jan. 6th, at which many invited guests were present. The address of Mr. Mayhew, on the occasion, is pronounced a very beautiful and interesting effort by one who heard it. After the usual exercises were over, a most excellent supper was partaken of, and the affair was of a pleasant character and will long be remembered.

The Review copies the lie, that the raising the regiment, "under Gibbs' call," will be $30,000 at the expense of the State. We would like to believe the Review capable of more fairness than this. Will it state what call "Gibbs" has made? And will it please state the items of the expense to the State? or else retract the statement, if it intends to make it.

OREGON GIVEN TO THE PHILISTINES.—A correspondent of the Bulletin from Philadelphia says he never doubted the vote of California or Nevada but he "gave Oregon over to the Philistines." We don't see what authority or reason there was for so doing, but as we didn't go, we suggest that the world owes us more appreciation in the future.

RECRUITING IN GRANT AND WASCO COUNTIES.—We learn that Capt. Borland has succeeded in raising about 70 of the 120 men to compose the quota of what was once Wasco county. He expects to raise enough to form a minimum company and be mustered into the service by the 20th of this month.

The citizens of Lewiston have placed an injunction upon the removal of the Capitol of Idaho Territory from that place to Boise City, on the ground that the session of the Legislature at which the bill was passed was not legally convened.

A DESPERADO KILLED.—William C. Carder, a noted desperado of Nevada, was killed at Esmeralda on the 10th of December by Moses Brockman.

EXCESSIVE COLD—SUFFERING AND LOSS OF LIFE.—Mr. Geo. Owens arrived from Ruby City yesterday and furnished us with items in regard to the cold weather and storms in the mountains of Owyhee. The Owyhee stage left here last Friday morning with two passengers and the mails; but Mr. Barnes, the driver, believing the storm too severe on the mountains to be safe crossing, stopped at the station sixteen miles beyond Snake river. Next morning he went as far as Honey Lake Smith's, seven miles further, where he left passengers and mails, and came back, still not wishing to take the risk of crossing over. Mr. Owens and J. T. Myers and one other, called Bob, immediately started for Booneville on foot—Myers carrying the Ruby City mail on his back. The cold was not severe nor the wind troublesome until they had nearly reached the summit, when the wind began to blow a most violent hurricane, drifting the snow into piles and filling the air so full that it was with the greatest difficulty that any progress could be made. It was impossible to see more than a few yards distant, and with much effort that they could keep from freezing. It soon became dark and they lost the trail, but they kept on as near in the direction of Booneville as they could guess, the snow some of the time being up to their waists.

When within about two and a half miles of that place, Myers fell behind some distance, and Owens and Bob pushed on, until about eight o'clock in the evening they stumbled upon a corral, and then soon found a miner's cabin close by, where they staid all night. It being but a short distance from Booneville, they supposed that Myers would reach there that night, because he was acquainted with the country, and had, but a short time before he fell behind, given them directions what ridge to take to go there. Next day, being last Sunday Mr. Owen went to Boonville and Ruby City; and immediately on learning that Myers had not come in, parties started in search of him, but without success. He wore snow shoes, which were found about a mile from Booneville, but it was impossible to follow his track. The supposition is that he must have become exhausted and sunk in the snow when his body would be almost instantly covered smoothly over with the drifting snow, rendering search fruitless. Mr. Owen's had his hands and feet severely frozen, and Bob his ears slightly nipped. Mr. Myers has been residing in this city for the past few months, and was a well known and respected citizen here.—Idaho Statesman, Dec 22d.

DATES TO JANUARY 9.

Army of the James and Roanoke.

HEADQUARTERS Army of the Potomac, Jan. 3.—Nothing new to report on the lines in front of Petersburg. Some shelling took place near the Appomatox yesterday morning without any result. Four deserters were executed yesterday, one hung and three shot. Some fifteen deserters from the enemy came in this morning, four being cavalry men with their horses and equipments. A party from the [illegible] of Prince [illegible] came into our lines yesterday and were sent North to-day. They were forced to leave on account of the scarcity of food, and look as if [illegible] for want of the necessaries of life for some time.

The Herald's Norfolk letter gives additional particulars of the Roanoke river expedition. The gunboats Otsego and Bazely were sunk by torpedoes. The river was found to be full of them. Seventy-five were taken up in a distance of twenty-five miles. Sometimes eight or nine were found stretched across the river in a single line. The fleet proceeded to Poplar Point and found the batteries too strong to be taken without a co-operating land force. On their return the boats were somewhat annoyed by sharpshooters.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—The Herald's City Point correspondent of the 8th says: Gen. Butler has been removed by the President from the position of commander of the Army of the James and the department of Virginia and North Carolina, and ordered to report at Lowell, Mass. The official document in the case directed him to turn over his command to the [illegible] Gen. Grant [illegible]. Gen. Ord, lately in charge of a corps, succeeds temporarily to the important position.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The Senate in executive session confirmed the nomination of Alexander S. Johnson of New York as commissioner for the settlement of the claims of the Hudson Bay and Puget Sound Agricultural Company, vice Daniel S. Dickinson, declined. The President has sent a message to Congress asking an appropriation for a portion of the money to be paid by the United States under the treaty with Belgium for the capitalization of the Scheldt dues.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—The Commercial's special dispatch says: Horace Greeley is in Washington urgent and persistent in his demand for peace, and predicting a speedy termination of the war. The Tribune does not think he will succeed. It urges the fixing up of our army in making short work of the rebellion. Blair is not [illegible] with any power from our Government, but we infer he has been authorized to ascertain whether any true peace is now attainable.

The Herald's Washington correspondent details a conversation with a man recently from Richmond who says the rebels are busy preparing for evacuation. Much of the Government property, and that of officials, has already been sent off to the interior. Jeff Davis has become convinced that he cannot hold the city much longer. It is being [illegible]. Late rebel papers show that Davis has now on hands quarrels with the Governments of Mississippi, Georgia and Alabama.

What Rebel Papers Say.

The Richmond Whig thinks the recent alleged peace mission of the two Blairs, entitles the United States to be considered the most impudent Nation that ever had existence.

The Charleston Courier says that Hood butchered his troops, as recklessly as according to the Richmond Sentinel ever Grant did.

The Richmond Whig prints testimony from a Savannah clergyman to General Wayne and Beauregard stating that the reported atrocities charged upon Sherman's army at Milledgeville are wholly unfounded. The ladies of Milledgeville also write that no such violence was ever committed.

The Richmond Sentinel of the 6th says Sherman is doubtless moving on Branchville, South Carolina.

The Examiner says dispatches from Hardee report the enemy before Hardeeville, South Carolina, but there was no indications of an immediate attack.

The Augusta Chronicle comments upon affairs at Savannah and warns Georgians against submission, saying it is treasonable.

The Examiner demands that public meetings be held in Georgia to keep up the spirits of the citizens and prevent their trusting in the promises of the Yankees.

The Augusta Constitutionalist declares that there were only seventeen persons present at the citizen's meeting in Savannah.

Miscellaneous.

The steamer Knickerbocker, from New York, was lost on the Chesapeake Bay on Friday last. It is supposed that her crew perished.

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—Advices from Morganzia, La., state that all was quiet. An expedition consisting of a portion of Sims' battery, and an infantry and cavalry force had been sent by Gen. Ullman beyond the Atchafalaya. They met a few rebels who fled at their approach.

A Union officer, writing from the rebel prison at Columbia, S. C., says: Many officers are escaping, fifteen getting away in one day. The rations at this place consist of corn meal and sorghum molasses.

The Herald's Savannah letter says: On the night of the 17th, four hours after Colonel Mulford's flag of truce left Fort Sumter, the blockade runner Fox ran through the fleet and reached Nassau. It is rumored that the rebel rams are preparing to come down to attack the fleet.

Communication with Newbern by canal has been resumed.

Foreign.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—Considerable opposition is manifested in some of the British American Provinces to the proposed Colonial Confederation. In Prince Edward's Island it has caused a Ministerial resignation, and it is claimed nine-tenths of the inhabitants are opposed to the scheme. In Nova Scotia, numerously attended and enthusiastic meetings of influential citizens have been held to protest against it.

The Tribune's London letter says: The proceeds of the Liverpool Fair will be given to the rebels abroad, who are terribly in need of it. At the principal hotels in Paris, over four thousand trunks have been pawned by Southern gentlemen as security for their bills. The same letter says the rebel agents have recently bought the steamship Rattlesnake, sister to the Tallahassee, and are evidently designing fitting her out for a frigate.

California News.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10.—The Typographical Union publishes a long card defending themselves from charges made by the American Flag.

General orders have been issued by Gen. McDowell given the result of the investigation of the charges made against Capt. Sullivan by McCarthy. The Court found the charges utterly and wholly false and without justification.

Judge Cowles denies continuing the indictments against Moses Frank for forgery. The trial proceeds to-morrow.

John Fight alias Jimmy arrested for grand larceny was held to bail in the sum of $2,000 on two charges each.

The annual leasing of the pews by auction at the Unitarian Church last evening, realized nine thousand two hundred dollars premiums, making a total revenue from pew rents twenty-two thousand dollars.

The opposition steamer America sails at 4 o'clock to-morrow afternoon. Passage rates—upper deck, $150; cabin, $110; second cabin, $60; steerage $40.

The steamer Pacific cleared for Portland and Victoria yesterday afternoon.

Gold yesterday 227. Greenbacks 44.

Murder at Salem.

SALEM, Og'n, Jan. 1.—Daniel Delaney, Sr., an old resident and esteemed citizen of this State, was murdered last night at his residence about 8 miles from Salem. As near as can be ascertained from his Indian boy, who was present at the time, he was called out of his house by two men masked, and shot dead on the porch. The boy was badly frightened and secreted himself till this morning. The house was plundered and the trunks and chests opened. Plunder was, without doubt, the object of the murder, as Mr. Delaney has been known for some time to have a large amount of money secreted on his premises. He was about 70 years of age, and leaves a large family who are grown up and settled in the neighborhood where he lived, while he lived in a retired spot and almost alone. No clue has as yet been obtained to the perpetrators of this terrible deed.

RECRUITING IN BAKER AND UNION COUNTIES.—A friend writes us from Auburn that no effort has been made to raise the quota—45 men—called for from the counties above named, though he seems to think there are many who would willingly volunteer.

Letter from Owyhee.

RUBY CITY, Owyhee, Dec. 12, 1864.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

Snow three feet deep, and more coming, yet the American's won't keep still, but are as full of business as ever in spite of snow and ice. One hundred and fifty pack animals and several heavy wagons, on Reynold's creek, six miles from here, and lots of men, with teams and sleds, wallowing through the snow for the freight.

[illegible] is the first appearance of Jordan creek to a man at the window to-day. But you don't see all that is going on from the window, nor, indeed, the most important and encouraging work for [illegible] in our camp; for quartz lodes here have been found, the men taken out and worked, and the result is, the production of "bricks" of the material of which the "Almighty Dollar" is made, [illegible] to surpass anybody but the natives! [illegible] what's the matter; and even now, the teams are displaying the same persistent obstinacy in keeping open the road from the Mahogany [illegible] mill to the Oro Fino mountain, and bringing quartz to the mill. Below the surface, the work is still more exciting to those who are afflicted with quartz on the brain, for I believe the lodes invariably improve as they sink down on them. Oro Fino gets richer and more of it, [illegible] & Diggs, [illegible] are improving, for they don't make half as much noise as formerly. Home [illegible], Silver Legion, Calaveras, Allison, Morning Star and other prominent ledges are being worked night and day, with good success. On the discovery of the Morning Star, the boys have reached the depth of one hundred and fifteen feet, and commenced drifting again, the ledge being [illegible] to seven feet in width. The Morning Star Tunnel Company, situated opposite Silver City, is driving their work night and day, and [illegible] that they will make a big thing of it.

[illegible] not enough to keep us wide awake, we have a [illegible] of justice here, to execute the law sometimes, that would cause one accustomed to seeing the vindication of the "majesty of the law," to think this a great place for burlesques, at any rate. For instance: we had a sport arrested for trying to kill another by snapping a derringer at his breast. Court sat, and was proceeding with the examination, when another sport came in, slightly drunk, and said: "I am plaintiff for the attorney, with a privilege, please your honor." Another sport, more belligerent, gets in a quarrel with the constable, and the prisoner, being tired of the fun, gets up and walks off, whereupon the [illegible] solemnly arose, saying: "Get out of the house, every son of a b—h of you leave, I'll be —d if I don't resign;" and resign he did. So you see we have "law and order here," we do. [illegible] for our officers. If a desperado [illegible] anything here, the Chinese have to look wild, you bet.

Yours, though it snows,
UNCLE FULLER.

THE FIRE YESTERDAY MORNING.—The building on the corner of First and Washington streets, owned by Mr T A [illegible] and occupied by Mr Cutter as a [illegible] was discovered to be on fire at about [illegible] yesterday morning. [illegible] did very efficient service [illegible] the corner building [illegible] by the firm of [illegible] & Shiraw [illegible] the Oregon Bakery [illegible] rear of Mr Cutter's place [illegible] the loss [illegible] was the principal [illegible] Messrs Opitz Shaw [illegible] They were awakened by the crackling and heat of the flames [illegible] and had barely time to escape with [illegible] themselves [illegible] after their escape the [illegible] they had been sleeping were enveloped in [illegible] The block [illegible] cars [illegible] adjoining streets [illegible] Other branches [illegible] manner. The firemen [illegible] each claim the credit of having the water on the fire. Company [illegible] had two streams playing [illegible] handled with great efficiency by Capt [illegible] The fire plug near Johnson's market was put to use, but being slightly out of order [illegible] consequence. The heaviest [illegible] of the loss falls upon Messrs Opitz Shaw & C[illegible] of determination which is [illegible] obstacles they set [illegible] carpenters to work yesterday as could [illegible] and commenced a reconstruction of their buildings. Capt Baker who was [illegible] loon, where the fire originated lost all [illegible] the business but was serving his customers with "stews and raw" at another place last evening. In reply to the question [illegible] Mr Cutter if he had saved anything, he said [illegible] bits I had in my trousers. We believe there was no insurance on any of the property [illegible]

STREET TRAVEL.—Complaints have been frequently lodged against persons, and parties have been arrested for riding on the sidewalks, and by failing to set up any defense, preferring a plea of "Guilty," have generally been fined for violation of city ordinances. Yesterday Mr Frank Ball a horse dealer from San Francisco, was arraigned on such a charge in the Recorder's Court and when the case was called set up a plea of justification, after admitting the [illegible] specified in the complaint. Several witnesses were examined. Mr W S Wells testified that he was a horse dealer bought and sold horses trained and broke horses knew the condition of Front street in the city. [illegible] Portland had himself attempted to drive a pair of horses attached to a buggy through the street when both horses [illegible] and he was obliged to employ another team to haul them out [illegible] capable driver. Mr L [illegible] W Quinly testified that Front street above Salmon was impassable to ride or drive a horse with safety, that he had repeatedly been obliged to take to the sidewalk himself with a horse, and had found loaded teams doing the same and he should consider it a necessity to prevent the peril of losing life and property; did not think it safe to drive over a greater portion of the street at the localities named. It is not essential to the case that we follow all the evidence taken, nor refer to the pleadings pro and con suffice to say that the defendant was very properly discharged by the Recorder and we do not suppose the city will appeal the case until the mud holes are fenced in at least.

THEATRE.—Willamette Theatre was crowded almost to suffocation last evening on the occasion of Mrs. Hayne's benefit, which is a test of the estimation our citizens hold in her. Visitors were charmed with the excellent performing of the entire troupe, elicited no doubt by the appearance of so large and respectable an audience. We were not in time to witness the first part of the evenings entertainment, but were informed that it was all that could have been wished. Mrs Hayne as Duchess de Chartres, in the comedy of the "Follies of a Night," performed in excellent style. Mr Waldron as Duke de Chartres, did his part in the happiest manner while Mr Pardey as Pierre Pilliot, afforded infinite amusement, and received rounds of applause for his perfect acting of the part. Taken all together it was the most pleasant evening spent in Willamette Theatre for some time. A good bill is offered for to night.

RECORDER'S COURT.—James Irwin charged with being violent and disorderly, plead guilty and was committed to jail for three days, in Recorder's Court yesterday. Albert McGee was also committed for two days. Wm Cooper was fined $10 and costs for similar actions which he paid. C C M[illegible]rrell was arraigned for driving a horse on the side walks of the city, plead guilty and was fined $5 and costs, which he paid. Frank Ball, arraigned on a similar charge, admitted that he had ridden a horse over a portion of the sidewalk of Front street, and set a plea in justification of his acts, proving by competent witnesses that it was a necessity, and the decision of the Court acquitted defendant, adjudging the costs to be paid by the city.

"AN IMPORTANT SUIT DECIDED."—Our notice of yesterday, under the above title, has brought us a note written in words of retaliation, in answer to which we have only to say that our item was given as a matter of news. Such a case was decided in United States Circuit Court on Monday last and most likely will be appealed by the defendants. We would give no cause for complaint to the defendants on our part, whom we believe claim the property in good faith, have held it uninterruptedly for nearly fifteen years and have made valuable improvement on it. Of John T Hall personally we know nothing and the writer of the above understands where we obtained the information for our statements about him.

FOR AQUINA VICINITY.—The steamer R[illegible] of the P [illegible] Company's line, yesterday left for Oregon City, freighted with sutler's stores and other government supplies for Fort Hoskins that have come this way from San Francisco. Fort Hoskins is situated about fifteen miles from Corvallis, on the route to Aquina Bay. With the Gen. Jessup built for transporting such merchandize it is an oversight we presume, that it was not forwarded from "Bay to Bay" direct. What do you say brother Boyakin?

A NOVELTY.—Quite a sensation was produced yesterday by the appearance of a wild deer in the very heart of the city. The animal had doubtless been endeavoring to inspect some of the garden shrubbery in the suburbs when suddenly finding himself on dangerous ground he endeavored to escape; but instead of seeking shelter in the woods came bounding down Washington street to Front and down that to the foot of Stark where he bid defiance to hundreds of blood thirsty pursuers by leaping into the river.

OYSTER SUPPER.—The ladies of the M E Church had many more in attendance than they anticipated, to partake of the oyster supper advertised for last evening, and express themselves as much pleased with the result. About two hundred were present and the Armory of Company A was filled with a pleasant company that appeared to enjoy the occasion very much indeed.

THE large lot of furs advertised for sale in another column and referred to yesterday will be sold to-day at Richards' [illegible] and [illegible] at Harker's as [illegible] stated. There was an immense crowd at [illegible] the purpose of inspecting these goods which are of a superior quality.

IN PROSPECT.—Columbia Engine Company No 3 will give a ball on Monday evening the 16th, to commemorate the occasion of moving in their new engine house.

The people of the Dalles have good walking about town despite the mud, as their streets freeze up occasionally.

The ball at Vancouver, held Monday evening to celebrate the anniversary of the 8th of January and battle of New Orleans was well attended [illegible] plentiful affair generally [illegible] by the [illegible] the [illegible] though our friends [illegible] its of expense while the State militia officers appeared in full uniform rivalling the [illegible] appearance of the officers of the [illegible] entertainment was of the best and the [illegible] was a triumph [illegible] Taken as a whole the affair was a delightful one. The music of the evening was [illegible] the [illegible] of this city who [illegible] a musical journey. Many of our citizens went over in the evening [illegible] and there were [illegible] guests present from the Dalles and Astoria. Not [illegible] outsiders in any particular [illegible] citizens all the [illegible] could have [illegible] at home, the good people of the Fort [illegible] quarter [illegible] a more [illegible] affair than the Portland firemen [illegible] that evening, and [illegible] entirely at the expense of Uncle Samuel.

CLEANSE THE BLOOD.

WITH corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood, you must be sick all over. It may burst out in pimples or sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. Sarsaparilla purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurities of the blood such as Scrofula or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints and Heart Diseases.

STOP THAT COUGHING!

Some of you must and we pity you. You have tried every remedy but the one destined by its intrinsic merit to supercede all similar preparations. A Greenback Case!

HAVING BEEN COMPELLED TO ACCEPT OF Legal Tender Notes at par since the 17th day of December 1862 for the rent of my handsome Brick Store, corner of Morrison and Front streets I feel compelled to announce for the benefit of the public at large, that

Jacob Mayer

Leased the building from me on the 17th day of February 1862 for a term of years at which time there was no such currency in vogue and it was understood the terms were CASH. Since the date above stated I have received the depreciated currency regularly under protest for the rent of the

CITY OF PARIS STORE,

Making less than two fifths of the real amount said Mayer was to pay. He had secured the building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with his contract and pay in COIN would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to take such undue advantage of the times to convert a few dollars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see what it costs to have such tenants. G W VAUGHN

Colonel Crockett's "Go Ahead" Story.—"I never but once," said the Colonel, "was in what I call a real genuine quandary. It was during my electioneering for Congress, at which time I strolled about in the woods so particularly pestered by politics that I forgot my rifle. Any man may forget his rifle, you know; but it isn't every man can make amends for his forgetfulness by his faculties, I guess. It chanced that I was strolling along, considerable deep in congressionals; the first thing that took my fancy was the snarling of some young bears, which proceeded from a hollow tree; but I soon found I could not reach the cubs with my hands; so I went feet foremost, to see if I could draw them up by the toes. I hung on the top of the hole, straining with all my might to reach them, until at last my hands slipped, and down I went, more than twenty feet, to the bottom of that hole, and there I found myself almost hip deep in a family of fine young bears. I soon found that I might as well undertake to climb up the greasiest part of a rainbow, as to get back—the hole in the tree being so large, and its sides so slippery from the rain. Now this was a real genuine, regular quandary. If so be I was to shout, it would have been doubtful whether they would have heard me at the settlement; and if they did hear me, the story would ruin my election; for they were of a quality too 'cute to vote for a man that ventured into a place that he could'nt get himself out of. Well, now, while I was calculating whether it was best to shout for help, or to wait in the hole until after the election, I heard a kind of grumbling and growling overhead; and looking, I saw the old bear coming down stern foremost upon me. My motto is always 'go ahead,' and as she had lowered herself within my reach, I got a tight grip of her tail with my left hand, and with my little buck-handled penknife in the other, I commenced spurring her forward. I'll be shot if ever a member of Congress rose quicker in the world than I did! She took me out in the shake of a lamb's tail."

Not at Home.—A worthy Hibernian, who was laboring under the delusion that men and women meant what they said, was tempted by a very cordial invitation from a lady of distinction to call at her house. The servant opened the door so quick that her voice was heard by Dr. M., saying, "Tell him I am not at home." His Irish wit came to his rescue, for he immediately said in a loud voice to the darkey:

"Tell your mistress I have not called upon her this evening as she wished me."

The lady ran out, took the doctor by both hands, and laughed heartily at his ignorance of the greatest institution of respectable life—lying.

An Apt Illustration.—A person asking how it happened that many beautiful ladies took up with indifferent husbands, after many fine offers, was thus aptly answered by a mountain maiden: A friend of hers requested her to go into a cane brake and get him the handsomest reed. She must get it at once going through, without turning. She went, and coming out brought him quite a mean reed. When he asked her, was that the handsomest she saw? "Oh, no," replied she, "I saw many finer as I went along, but I kept on in hopes of one much better, until I got nearly through, and then I was obliged to take up with any one I could find—and got a crooked one at last."

Danger in Trifles.—The road to home-happiness lies over small stepping-stones. Slight circumstances are the stumbling-blocks of families. The prick of a pin, says the proverb, is enough to make an empire insipid. The more tender the feelings the more painful the wound. A cold, unkind word checks and withers the blossom of the dearest love, as the most delicate rings of the vine are troubled by the faintest breeze. The misery of a life is born of a chance observation. If the true history of quarrels, public and private, were honestly written, it would be silenced with an uproar of derision.

On the road to Epsom, a moustached youth, on the top of a drag, evidently ambitious of being mistaken for "an officer," thus saluted a fat coachman, who was gravely driving his master and family: "Hallo, you sir! where's your shirt-collar? How dare you come to the Derby without a shirt-collar?" Jehew growled forth, without lifting his eyes from his horses: "'Ow the dooce could I, when your mother has not sent home my washing?"

A Rebel Raid in New Jersey.—A soldier reading the inscriptions on the transparencies in a Democratic procession in Trenton, and discovering nothing inscribed thereon but abuse of the President of the United States and insults of our government, turned to a companion and exclaimed, "I say, Jim, this is the first rebel raid we've seen since we left Virginia!"

"For want of water I am forced to drink water; if I had water, I would drink wine." This speech is a riddle, and here is the solution: It was the complaint of an Italian vineyard man, after a long drought, and an extremely hot summer, that had parched up all his grapes.

An artist in this city, painted a dog so naturally, that the animal had the hydrophobia, during the hot weather. He's the same man who painted a copy of a beer bottle with such skill, that the cork flew out, just as he was finishing it.

A chaplain in Arkansas says that a man buying furs was conversing with a woman at whose house he called, and asked her "if there were any Presbyterians round there." She hesitated a moment, and said she "guessed her husband hadn't killed any since they'd lived there."

Tom, you seem to gain flesh every day; the grocery business must agree with you. What did you weigh last? "Well Jim, I really forget now; but it strikes me it was a pound of butter."

In New York, medical practitioners are so abundant that it is said a gentleman seeing his friend walk in Broadway, and having called out "Doctor," ten persons instantly turned round to answer.

A counsel being asked by a judge "for whom he was concerned," replied "I am CONCERNED for the plaintiff, my lord, but I am employed by the defendant."

Legal Problem.—Find the amount of a judge's "charge" to a jury, and the "summing-up" of the evidence. The answer to be given in "figures of speech."

"Wouldn't you call this the calf of a leg?" asked Bob pointing to one of his nether limbs. "No," replied Jim; "I should say it was the leg of a calf."

"I didn't think you would be so hard with me," as the shark said when he bit the anchor.

LAWS OF OREGON.

Acts passed at the Third Regular Session of the Legislative Assembly.

AN ACT to provide for and regulate the election and qualifications of Sheriffs, County Clerks and Coroners.

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon, as follows:

Section 1. There shall be elected at a general election by the qualified voters of each county in this State, a sheriff, county clerk and coroner, for such county, who shall each hold his office for the term of two years, and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Sec. 2. A person is not eligible to the office of sheriff, county clerk or coroner, unless he be a citizen of the United States, a qualified elector under the constitution of this State, and a resident of the county wherein he is elected for the period of one year, next preceding his election.

Sec. 3. The term of office of a sheriff, county clerk and coroner, shall commence on the first Monday of July next following the election of sheriff, county clerk or coroner; and before entering upon such offices, or either of them, the person elected thereto, must qualify therefor, by filing with the county clerk of the county wherein he is elected, his certificate of election, with an oath of office endorsed thereon and subscribed by him, to the effect that he will support the constitution of the United States, of this State, and faithfully demean himself in office, and also give and file the undertaking hereinafter provided.

Sec. 4. If a vacancy shall happen in the office of sheriff, county clerk or coroner, in any county in this State, the county court of such county must appoint some suitable person to fill such vacancy, who shall hold such office until the next general election thereafter, and until his successor is elected and qualified. A person appointed to fill a vacancy in either of the offices mentioned in this section, before entering upon the duties thereof must qualify therefor as in the case of a person elected to such office.

Sec. 5. The official undertaking of a sheriff must be given to the State in the sum of ten thousand dollars, with two or more sufficient sureties who must be residents of the county, and have the qualifications of bail upon arrest; Provided, that when in the opinion of the county court the sum raised is insufficient, the undertaking may be increased to fifteen thousand dollars. The undertaking must be approved by the county court and filed with the county clerk, and may be substantially in the following form: [Official undertaking of the sheriff: Whereas, at an election held on the day of 18—, A. B. was duly elected Sheriff for the county of , we C. D. and E. F. hereby undertake that if the said A. B. shall not faithfully pay over according to law, all moneys that may come into his hands by virtue of such office, and otherwise well and faithfully perform the duties of such office, then we, or either of us, will pay the State of Oregon, the sum of ten thousand dollars.

Sec. 6. The official undertaking of a county clerk or coroner must be given, approved and filed in the manner prescribed for the official undertaking of a sheriff, and must be in the same amount, except the undertaking of a coroner, which may be given in the sum of three thousand dollars; and such official undertaking may be in substantially the same form as a sheriff's, substituting the name of "coroner" or "county clerk," as the case may be, for that of "sheriff."

Sec. 7. When it satisfactorily appears to the county court that the sureties in an official undertaking are dead or insufficient, or have removed from the county, such court upon reasonable notice to the officer giving such undertaking, must require him to give a new undertaking with sufficient sureties, and in default of compliance with such order, the office is to be deemed vacant.

Sec. 8. The sureties in the official undertakings herein mentioned must justify before the county court as bail upon arrest, and their justification must be filed with the undertaking.

Sec. 9. The sheriffs, county clerks and coroners now in office, shall hold their offices for the term of two years from and after the first Monday of July, next following their election, and until their successors are elected and qualified.

Sec. 10. The general election at which a sheriff, county clerk or coroner, must be elected, is the election next preceding the expiration of the term of the then incumbent of such office.

Approved, October 24th, 1864.

From the army hospital—the bloody battle-field—the mansion of the rich, and humble abode of the poor—from the office and the sacred desk—from the mountain top, distant valleys, and far-off islands of the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world—is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands and thousands of [illegible] like the following may be seen at our office:

Kenosha, Wis., Sept. 16, 1864.

* * * I have been in the army hospitals for fourteen [illegible] speechless and nearly dead. At Alton, Ill. they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters * * * Three bottles restored my speech and cured me.

C. A. FLAUTE."

South Warsaw, O., July 28, 1863.

* * * One young man, who had been sick and not out of the house for two years with Scrofula and Erysipelas, after paying the doctors over $100 without benefit, has been cured by ten bottles of your Bitters.

EDWARD YOUNALL."

The following is from the manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

Havemeyer Mansion, Fifty-Seventh St., New York, August 1, 1863.

Dr. Drake: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs, with most happy effect. One little girl, in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well. * * * Respectfully,

Mrs. O. M. DEVOE."

* * * I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life.

Rev. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y."

* * * Thou wilt send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefitted by their use. Thy friend,

ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa."

* * * I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and had to abandon preaching. * * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me.

Rev. J. S. CATHORN, Rochester, N. Y."

* * * Send us twenty-four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which is daily increasing with the guests of our house.

SYKES, CHADWICK & CO.,
Proprietors Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C."

* * * I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect.

G. W. ANDREWS,
Superintendent Soldiers Home, Cincinnati, O."

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business.

H. B. KINGSLEY, Cleveland, O."

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.

C. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway, N. Y."

etc. etc. etc. etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

Notice.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon, is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff, for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label.

Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever [illegible]. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above [illegible], and also—

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY, LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease in any way connected with the disorder or decay of the Procreative Functions. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

When broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once rebraced, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom or an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor.—The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, AND
CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGUARY AND BURNING, OR PAINFUL
URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females,

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back, and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.

PERUVIAN SYRUP,

OR PROTECTED

Solution of Protoxide of Iron,

Has been used with Great Success in Curing

DYSPEPSIA,

Affections of the Liver, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Bronchitis and Consumptive Tendencies, Disordered State of the Blood, Female Complaints, Chronic Diarrhœa, Boils, Scurvy, the Prostrating Effects of Lead or Mercury,

GENERAL DEBILITY,

and all Diseases which require a

Tonic and Alterative Medicine.

THE PROOFS OF ITS EFFICACY ARE SO NUMERous, so well authenticated, and of such peculiar character, that sufferers cannot reasonably hesitate to receive the proffered aid.

The class of diseases for which the Syrup provides a cure is precisely that which has so often baffled the highest order of medical skill. The facts are tangible, the witnesses accessible, and the safety and efficacy of the Syrup incontrovertible.

From well-known Citizens of Boston.

The undersigned having experienced the beneficial effects of the "Peruvian Syrup," do not hesitate to recommend it to the attention of the public.

Certificate of Dr. Hayes.

It is well known that the Medicinal effect of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation, has been deemed impossible.

In the Peruvian Syrup, this desirable point is attained by combination in a way before unknown; and this solution may replace all the proto-carbonates, citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica.

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DIScovery of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to over-estimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered by the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It is found upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS and GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless, until Dr. Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve without a solvent. This, considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr. J. R. Chilton of this city, and Prof. Booth, U. S. Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals, and its use recommended to practitioners (see "American Medical Monthly," July 6, 1856, page 78).

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Full directions accompany each bottle.

Sold by all Druggists. Price, $1 per bottle. Prepared by Dr. H. Anders & Co., Physicians and Chemists, New York.

ALLEN'S

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.
